Thank you for your interest in the role of Programme Administrator within the Cross Impact Area team at UNEP-WCMC

Join us at an exciting time of growth and change, in a crucial role within our organisation, as a Programme Administrator. We are always looking for highly motivated and conscientious Administrators to join our team and work flexibly across the Centre. You will be responsible for providing extensive administrative support to a team of technical staff and assist with the implementation of a wide range of projects. A truly fantastic opportunity to acquire knowledge and skills within various thematic areas of conservation, learning from world class experts in this field, helping to improve the profile of our work. You will be part of a team of Administrators forming a central administration hub, to maintain effective administration processes and consistency across the organisation.

The Centre’s staff are passionate, experienced, ambitious and results-orientated, providing you with a brilliant opportunity to develop and contribute to your own skills. In addition to training and development opportunities, we offer a competitive salary and benefits package, including generous pension contributions.
ABOUT THE ROLE

Job Description

WCMC is a charity devoted to promoting, for public benefit, the conservation, protection, enhancement and support of nature and natural resources worldwide. The Programme Administrator will support the central function of the organisation, as well as a team of technical staff within the Impact Area. The post will assist in the implementation of a wide range of projects and provide extensive administrative support to these projects and project staff.

Key Areas of Responsibility

- Contribute to internal reporting through compiling administrative and financial reports, assisting with project planning and resource utilisation, and tracking outputs and associated communications.
- Assist in maintaining systems and give support to the Heads of Impact Area, with administration, including systems for tracking project reporting deadlines, invoicing schedules, and other administrative tasks associated with project implementation.
- Support the collation of project and Impact Area level KPIs and Centre-wide reporting.
- Support Project Leaders across Impact Areas in setting up and maintaining projects on the Centre’s project management and finance system, Deltek, and support Project leaders through the project life cycle.
- Help with contracting support by compiling initial draft contracts and preparing consultant subcontracts.
- Help to compile administrative and financial documents when submitting project proposals.
- Organise and provide support for internal and external meetings, workshops and retreats, including minute-taking, liaison with participants, organising transport arrangements, booking venues, set-up, catering, etc.
- Raise purchase orders and complete expense claims and other tasks as requested to support project staff.
- Support the production of outputs and communication/promotion material through helping with document formatting, etc.
- Support travel arrangements for visitors and consultants.
- Provide support across other Impact Areas, as required.

Other Duties

- To undertake any other duties as may be required from time to time commensurate with the level of the post.

- Internal and external invited speakers, workshops and talks that anyone can join or initiate.
ABOUT UNEP-WCMC

The UN Environment Programme World Conservation Monitoring Centre (UNEP-WCMC) is a global Centre of expertise in biodiversity. We work at the interface of science, policy and practice to tackle the global crisis facing nature.

The Centre operates as a collaboration between UN Environment Programme and the UK registered charity WCMC. Our cutting-edge science, data and insights inform policy and business decisions worldwide. This position is with the charity WCMC, working in collaboration with UNEP.

Achieving our vision of a world living in harmony with nature will require transformative and systemic change across all sectors. We bring together governments, businesses, research bodies and more to put nature at the heart of decision-making.

"We are entering a make or break decade for nature with UNEP-WCMC set to play a pivotal role in ensuring humanity finally begins to reverse the catastrophic loss of biodiversity globally."

Jonny Hughes, CEO of WCMC
Our strategy

We deliver our strategy through four independent impact areas which are complemented by three cross cutting innovation areas.

VISION 2050
Living in harmony with nature

MISSION
We develop knowledge and capacity for a nature-positive world
The people

We have around 180 amazing people who make up our organisation. We are a really friendly bunch of professionals and do not think a single person has ever left the organisation without saying that it is the people that make the organisation fantastic and how much they will miss them when they leave. We truly do have world class scientists and professionals!

The culture

Our culture is very supportive. There are lots of ups and downs in life, and we want to support our people through the difficult patches, so they can flourish again. We have a free employee assistance line that is available to all employees and their families and offers 6 remote counselling sessions and other advice services.

We have redesigned our kitchen and library to make a fantastic social space where you can have a quiet chat or a loud lunch with your colleagues! We also have tea every Wednesday afternoon, with locally homemade cakes and catch up with everyone and everything that is going on in the Centre.

We are affiliated with Cambridge University, and have rooms in the David Attenborough Building that we can use when we wish. We are also a member of the Cambridge Conservation Initiative and often collaborate with our CCI colleagues here.

WCMC attaches great importance to addressing safeguarding and ethical considerations in all activities carried out by its staff, including where partner organisations or individuals are part of the delivery of our work. This includes children and vulnerable adults in the community who may be vulnerable to abuse. WCMC acts with integrity, is transparent and expects applicants to share the same values.

Diversity

We really take our diversity seriously, as we operate globally and need to have the people perspectives within the organisation, to fully understand our clients and partners that we work with. Our aim following the introduction of the points based immigration system was to increase our diversity not only in our range of nationalities, but in all protected characteristics (age, disability, gender reassignement, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex).

We have a sponsorship licence and always take the best candidate for the role from a whole range of applicants and offer sponsorship to those that require it. We have people that have worked for us, for more than 30 years, and our fantastic internships often attract the best and brightest graduates.
HOW TO APPLY

If you are looking for a rewarding and motivating post where you can help shape this exciting field and contribute to a nature positive global economy, we want to hear from you.

Please complete our application form and send together with your 2 page CV and cover letter through this link.

We screen candidates based on skills and experience and not their personal details. Please do not include a photograph on your CV, and note that any applications which include a photograph may be automatically rejected.
