

WCMC

AD1505 Programme Officer - Policy
Application Pack

ABOUT WCMC

WCMC is a UK-based registered charity that operates in seamless collaboration with the UN Environment Programme World Conservation Monitoring Centre (UNEP-WCMC). Together, we are confronting the global crisis facing nature.

We do this through our unique position in ensuring science, knowledge and insights shape global and national policy. We have around 240 passionate professionals on our staff drawn from over 40 nationalities who work with partners around the world to build capacity and create innovative solutions to environmental challenges. The Centre also uses its position as a respected custodian of powerful and trusted environmental data to create positive impact for people and nature.

"We are in a make or break decade for nature with WCMC set to play a pivotal role in ensuring humanity finally begins to reverse the catastrophic loss of biodiversity globally."

Jonny Hughes, WCMC CEO

Thank you for your interest in the role of Programme Officer

We are looking for policy-literate Programme Officer to join our team. The ideal candidate will substantively contribute to our engagement with intergovernmental agreements and processes relevant to biodiversity and ecosystem services, including on ways to enhance cooperation and collaboration among these processes.

The successful candidates would work at the international level as part of experienced teams. We work with secretariats to intergovernmental agreements and processes, their governance and advisory bodies, and we support countries and regional organizations as they respond to their international obligations.

The successful candidates will have opportunities to represent the Centre at relevant meetings and workshops within the UK and internationally, and to build relationships with government representatives and other partners around the world. The successful candidates will gain job satisfaction through successful delivery of documents, reports and other information outputs that contribute to and support international meetings.

The successful candidates will be able to show us that they understand the challenges, constraints and opportunities of supporting policy development and implementation, and that they are sensitive to the needs and interests of different countries. The successful candidates will also be capable project managers, able to work accurately, rapidly and flexibly in response to developments in the external world.

We will give the successful candidates the chance to work in an environment that supports development of technical and personal skills. The successful candidates would work on high profile projects that aim to make a difference to the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity in the context of other social and environmental challenges towards a world living in harmony with nature.

About the Team

The UNEP-WCMC Policy team is a dynamic group of experts providing enabling and foundational support to the Centre's work and impact. For over 40 years, UNEP-WCMC has worked with partners to ensure the world is equipped with trusted science, data and knowledge and the capacity and policy advice to use this for better decision-making. The Policy team plays a central role in ensuring the work of the Centre is relevant and impactful for international and national policy processes. We support the CBD and other intergovernmental conventions and processes, including identifying opportunities for increased cooperation. We provide authoritative information on biodiversity indicators to decision-makers in international organisations and processes, national governments, business, and other stakeholders. We support decision-makers in assessing biodiversity and ecosystems services and their contributions to society and human well-being. We also work with partners to promote equitable and ethical approaches to biodiversity policy and governance. We work as one organisation. So, while our projects, partnerships and collaborations form the basis of the Policy team's focal initiatives, they are delivered across the whole Centre.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Job Description

Main Purpose of the job

UNEP-WCMC has a significant body of work that supports the implementation of intergovernmental agreements and processes relevant to biodiversity and ecosystem services. In carrying this work out, the Centre sits at the core of the science-policy interface, engaging with international secretariats, national governments, and a wide range of other stakeholders including UN entities and international organizations.

Under the guidance of senior staff, the post holder will support development and implementation of the Centre's programme of work relating to intergovernmental agreements and processes, taking responsibility for particular areas of work as their experience develops.

Key Areas of Responsibility

- Using evidence and analyses to develop consistently high-quality, audience-targeted, policy relevant outputs including technical reports, policy briefs, information documents for intergovernmental processes.
- Managing projects or components of projects in support of the implementation of intergovernmental agreements and processes to time and on budget, with effective and efficient internal and external communication, project administration and reporting, delegating task-level coordination and management as appropriate.
- Proactively fostering and initiating the development of ideas on potential future projects for the Centre to use its capabilities in supporting intergovernmental and other policy processes.
- Representing UNEP-WCMC effectively at external meetings and workshops, ensuring a high level of professionalism, and as appropriate preparing meeting summaries, presentations, reports to donors, and internal briefings.
- Organising and facilitating workshops and other expert meetings both remotely and in person, as well as contributing to workshops and other expert meetings organized by others.
- Line managing staff and interns as required, and supervising the inputs of staff, interns, students, volunteers and consultants as necessary in support of project implementation and the delivery of projects, activities and outputs.
- Initiating, growing and sustaining relationships with key individual partners and stakeholders, including governmental agencies and secretariats from international organizations.

Other Duties

The post holder will also be expected to continue to extend on an on-going basis their knowledge of policy processes and their implementation relevant to the work of the Centre.

This post is likely to require some overseas travel to relevant fora to represent UNEP-WCMC, and potentially also to work with partners and present our work and outputs.

Other duties may be assigned from time to time commensurate with the post holder's qualifications and experience.

Person Specification

Qualifications/Education

Essential:

- First degree in a relevant subject, such as geography, environmental sciences, economics, political science or development
- Either a postgraduate degree in a relevant subject, such as environmental policy or equivalent professional experience

Experience

Essential:

- Demonstrated experience in a policy focused role, including first-hand familiarity of the workings and/or national implementation of multilateral and/or regional policy and legal frameworks.
- Proven familiarity with key environmental issues including those relating to the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity and ecosystem services; as well as approaches to the integration of environmental issues into decision making processes of other sectors.
- Sound working knowledge of at least one of the following intergovernmental processes: biodiversity-related conventions such as the Convention on Biological Diversity and its Protocols; other environmental multilateral agreements; other intergovernmental processes including at the regional level.
- A clear understanding of processes aimed at strengthening the science/policy interface in the field of international governance such as IPCC, or some of the international science-policy panels or platforms.
- Experience of researching and synthesising complex information and presenting it for use by policymakers and decision-makers.
- Experience of working in partnership with a variety of stakeholders, such as governments, intergovernmental organisations, academia, etc.
- Experience of representing organisations in international (and preferably intergovernmental) fora.

Desirable:

- At least five years' relevant professional experience in a national or intergovernmental agency, or non-governmental organisation

Desirable:

- Demonstrated experience relevant to another sector impacting on the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity such as (but not restricted to) agriculture, development, chemicals and health.
- Experience in organizing and conducting training workshops, in particular for government officials.
- Experience of developing project concepts and proposals focused on meeting client needs.
- Experience of managing projects involving government partners and demanding clients.
- Experience in managing staff, both in terms of project team management and line management.

Skills

- Excellent writing and proofreading skills with the ability to produce clear, concise and high-quality reports targeted at government officials/decision makers.
- Strong critical and analytical skills, with an ability to make connections between multiple strands of dialogues and activities and to demonstrate clear insights into the needs of governmental representatives.
- Attention to detail to ensure that high quality outputs are consistently delivered for clients, and that colleagues are provided with constructive feedback.
- Strong project management skills and the ability to manage and motivate staff to deliver high quality outputs to time and budget.
- Ability to work to tight deadlines, balance competing demands on time and to seek support or delegate, as appropriate.
- Strong communications skills (written and spoken), willingness to represent UNEP-WCMC at international meetings and to make professional presentations to international audiences.
- Excellent inter-personal skills and the ability to work autonomously in a team environment, with an ability to build and maintain relationships internally and externally.
- Skilled in the use of MS Word and PowerPoint, and preferably also Excel.
- Fluency in written and spoken English is essential to this role, and fluency in at least one other UN language is desirable.

Type of Person Required

The successful candidate will be:

- A highly competent and organized individual with an enthusiasm for and commitment to the role of multilateralism in finding solutions to global biodiversity challenges;
- An excellent writer with an eye for detail, synthesizing material for policymakers, and will have high personal standards in editing and critically reviewing policy reports;
- A confident and persuasive communicator, and able to build trust with partners and work colleagues from many cultural backgrounds; and
- Skilled in project management, and able to work under the pressure created by external deadlines and circumstances.

We anticipate an individual who will:

- Enjoy the challenge of working on multiple projects as part of a team and be able to maintain a flexible approach to work planning; and
- Have the ability to draw on existing experience to make an immediate and significant contribution to the current and future work of UNEP-WCMC; and
- have a willingness to take on new challenges.

This is not a United Nations Post.

- Wellbeing Hub
- Focus on environmental sustainability kept in check by our Environment Committee
- Free annual flu vaccine
- Interest free study loans (subject to conditions)
- A diverse and inclusive workplace with over 40 nationalities represented on the staff

Training

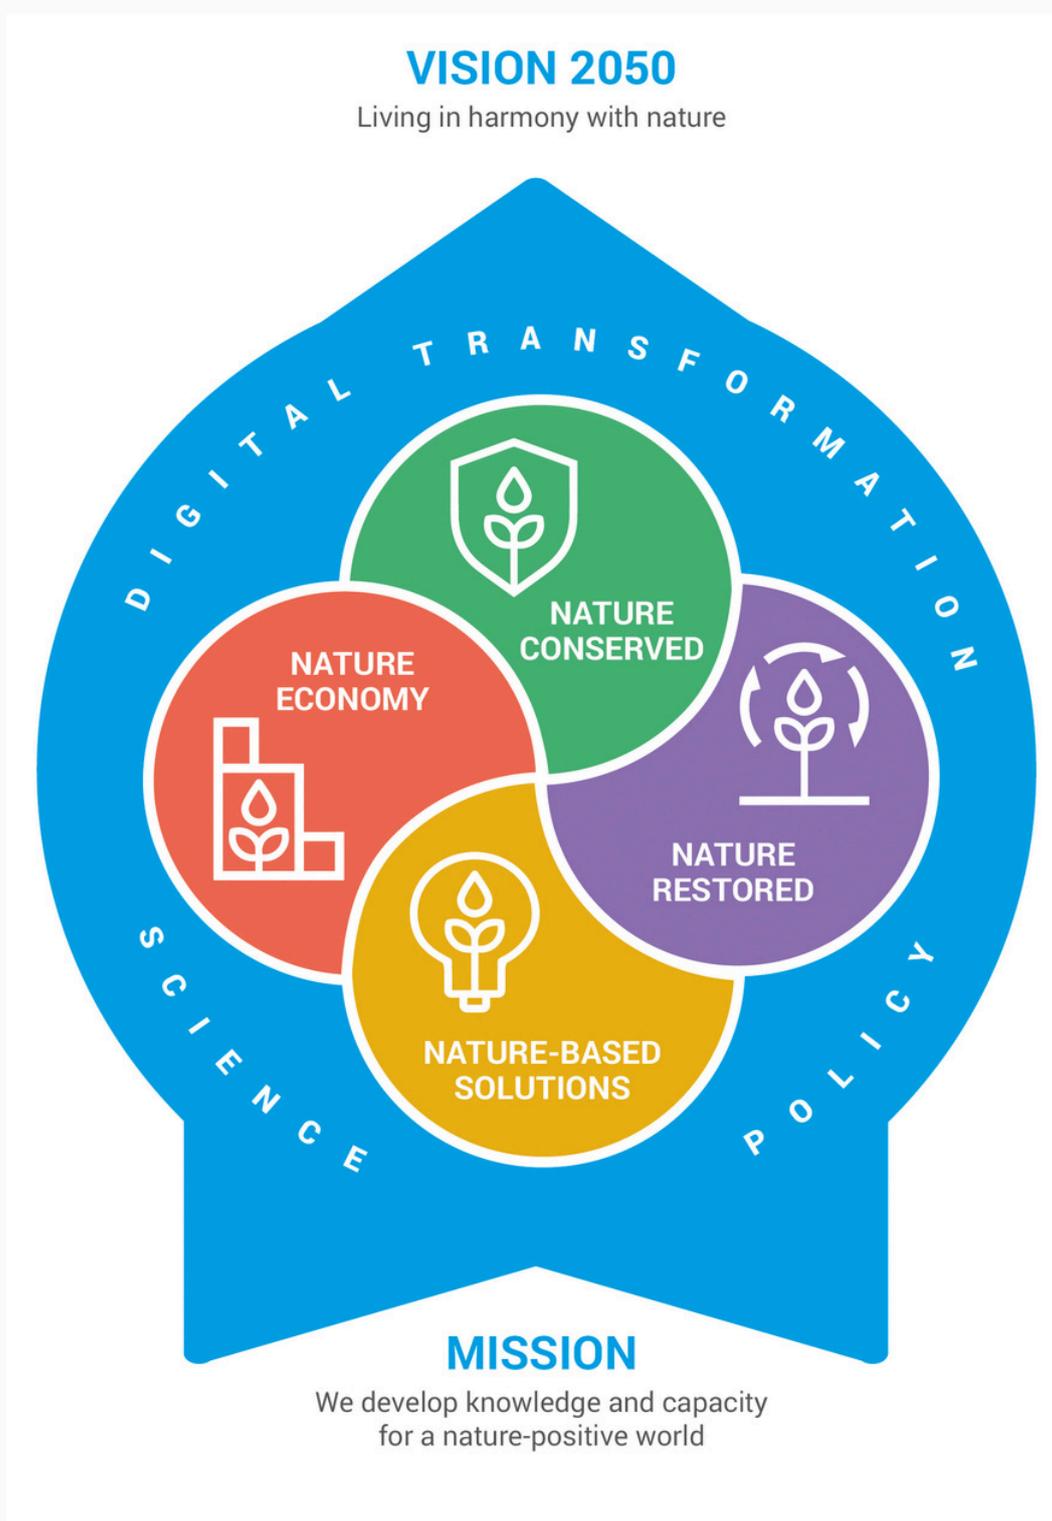

Our aim is to do our best for every person who works for us, so that they build their skills and knowledge over their career with us, and when they leave (some never do!) they are better placed to move onto the next stage of their career.

We have a comprehensive induction programme that spans the first 6 months including what's critical in the first week, first month, and then monthly afterwards.

- We encourage everyone to use 5 days for their own personal development each year. Standard training course which includes Management Development; Coaching culture; Resilience; Negotiation; Pitching and closing a deal.
- We also design our training and performance development reviews and organise bespoke training courses that meet the skill gaps in the organisation and fulfil the training needs of the people within it.
- Peer-to-Peer learning from our community of experts, taking advantage of the breadth and depth of knowledge and experience across the organisation.
- Internal and external invited speakers, workshops and talks that anyone can join or initiate.

UNEP-WCMC Strategy

UNEP-WCMC delivers its strategy through four independent impact areas which are complemented by three cross cutting innovation areas.

The people

We have around 200 amazing people who make up our organisation. We are a really friendly bunch of professionals and do not think a single person has ever left the organisation without saying that it is the people that make the organisation fantastic and how much they will miss them when they leave. We truly do have worldclass scientists and professionals!

The culture

The WCMC culture is very supportive. There are lots of ups and downs in life, and we want to support our people through the difficult patches, so they can flourish again. We have a free employee assistance line that is available to all employees and their families and offers 6 remote counselling sessions and other advice services.

We have redesigned our kitchen and library to make a fantastic social space where you can have a quiet chat or a loud lunch with your colleagues! We have lots of outdoor space including a wildlife pond, which is a popular area for outdoor meetings and relaxation. We also have tea every Wednesday afternoon, with locally home made cakes and catch up with everyone and everything that is going on at WCMC.

We are affiliated with Cambridge University and have rooms in the David Attenborough Building that we can use when we wish. UNEP-WCMC is also a member of the Cambridge Conservation Initiative, and we often collaborate with our CCI colleagues in our work.

WCMC attaches great importance to addressing safeguarding and ethical considerations in all activities conducted by its staff, including where partner organisations or individuals are part of the delivery of our work. This includes children and vulnerable adults in the community who may be vulnerable to abuse. WCMC acts with integrity, is transparent and expects applicants to share the same values.

Diversity

We really take our diversity seriously, as we operate globally and need to have the people perspectives within the organisation, to fully understand our clients and partners that we work with. Our aim following the introduction of the points based immigration system was to increase our diversity not only in our range of nationalities, but in all protected characteristics (age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex).

WCMC has a sponsorship licence and always take the best candidate for the role from a whole range of applicants and offer sponsorship to those that require it where this is compatible with visa sponsorship criteria. Due to recent changes in this criteria, we are only able to offer sponsorship for our higher grade roles.

We have people that have worked for us for more than 30 years, and our fantastic internships often attract the best and brightest graduates.

HOW TO APPLY
